

EVERY YEAR OVER $23 BILLION IN SALES TAXES GO UNCOLLECTED

No wonder our cities and towns are in trouble.

When you add it all up it makes no sense that online-only retailers do not have to collect state and local sales taxes like brick-and-mortar stores do. State and local governments are losing millions of dollars in revenue that could fund our schools, roads, libraries and first responders. Congress has the ability to close the tax loophole and bring our laws into the 21st Century.

Urge Congress to act on a federal solution, your cities and state depend on it.
