

NO MATTER HOW YOU LOOK AT IT, IT'S UNFAIR!

As online retailers exploit an UNFAIR sales tax loophole, communities across the country are hurting and jobs continue to be at risk.

Detroit Free Press

Small businesses across the state of Utah are struggling and the UNFAIR advantage given to online retailers hurts Utah businesses and local communities.

The Salt Lake Tribune

Consider the costs associated with online retailers not collecting sales taxes: jobs lost by local businesses unable to compete in an UNFAIR retail environment.

The State

For too long, Internet retailers have exploited an UNFAIR price advantage--upwards of 8 percent in Arkansas--that has eroded the ability of neighborhood stores to provide for their communities.

Arkansas Democrat Gazette

It's UNFAIR for online and mail-order merchants to avoid collecting state sales taxes, while local stores must collect them.

the Charleston Gazette

The UNFAIR and un-level playing field between Main Street retailers and online sellers threatens California jobs, public services and the stability that comes from local businesses having roots in their communities

San Francisco Chronicle

SUPPORT
S. 1832

Support S. 1832, the Marketplace Fairness Act and end online retailers' unfair advantage.

The federal government should no longer play favorites.

 International Council of Shopping Centers

To learn more visit www.icsc.org/salestaxfairness